MICHAEL W. DOBBINS
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

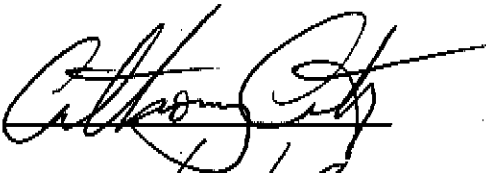

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Now comes, Anthony Canty, non-attorney, pro se, ad hoc, in want of attorney and requests this court to grant his MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION in support submits the following:

- 1) That the Judgement Ruling of Default in the civil case of 08R2896 was wrongly rule as to the timely availabilty of the filing process verses the acknowledgement of the action.
- 2) That the date of action was on 8/2/04 of property being delivered.
- 3) That the date of Mr. Canty's finding out about the fact of it (the property) being delivered was 6/20/05.
- 4) That the Bureau of Prisons policy is for federal inmates to exhaust all federal remedies, this entails Forms (BP 8, BP 9, BP 10, BP 11.)
- 5) That the gathering of the nessesary documents and the answering of all Federal BP Forms takes all of 1 1/2 years and the torts with its answered being returned almost exhausted the full two years totaling.
- 6) That the Response of the Tort Claim halted the tolling of the statue of limitations.

- 7) That even the tort claim filing established that the time frame to file was from its denial date and not from the acknowledgement date of Ms. Coates letter from the Cook County Department of Corrections.
- 8) That Mr. Canty requests the court to reconpsider the civil (Bivens Action) under its merits and not under its tolling infraction and in the event of its tolling infraction to be a factor of default to consider Rules and Stipulations of the BOP policy to exhaust all federal remedies before pursuing any civil action.

Wherefore, the defendant, Anthony Canty, humbly requests this court to grant his MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION.

The personal property and moneys were sent to the Metropolitan Correctional Center, and only moneys were made available to

Mr. Canty. Series of events is listed as follows:

Property was sent to the Metropolitan Correctional Center

71 W. Van Buren, Chicago, IL from Cook County Jail 2600 S.

California, Chicago, IL. County Department of Correction:

SEE ATTACHED LETTER SENT BY MS. OFFICER COATES MAILED ON 7/11/04

in that letter that Mr. Canty had sent to the property department of Cook County department of corrections had been processed and enclosed, please find the following items; 1 watch, 1 wallet 4 rings, 2 earrings, 4 necklaces

3 charms, with notation that any request for money must be submitted on the trust fund department, located at the same address, with hand written notation of any money to follow, written by Ms. Officer Coates. #3684.

I did not receive this letter from the Metropolitan Correctional Center, this letter was sent to me; (Anthony Canty), by the Cook County Dept. of Corrections through Ms. Officer Coates #3684 as proof she had sent the property, along with the original letter she; Ms. Officer Coates #3684 also sent a written statement, stating that the property had been received at the Metropolitan Correctional Center, 71 W. Van Buren, Chicago. And that the property was signed for by the officer of the mailroom. She further states that the property was sent certified mail and that it was signed for on a green receipt form of which she sent me (Anthony Canty) a copy of; see attached copy as exhibit (A).

This attached with original mailed letter as exhibit (B) also with attached letter is a COPY OF THE ORIGINAL GREEN CARD of the U.S.P.S. certified mailing system; see exhibit (C), also see attached exhibit (D) COPIES OF THE ORIGINAL RECEIPT FROM THE COOK COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS. This as well as all receipts show that property was actually sent to the Metropolitan Correctional Center and deliberately not given to me; (Anthony Canty).

CHRONOLOGICAL SERIES OF EVENTS

5/04 Mr. Anthony Canty, in custody at Cook County Department of Corrections was transferred to the Metropolitan Correctional Center, no personal property was brought with Mr. Anthony Canty; see exhibit (D).

5/24/04 Mr. Anthony Canty through COMMUNICATION WITH THE COOK COUNTY DEPT. OF CORRECTIONS, 2600 S. California Ave. Chicago, IL, requested permission to have family member pick up property from the Cook County Dept. of Corrections. This situation was approved, but was not able to be accomplished because of the schedule of family members and the schedule allotted to for pick up times by the property dept. of the Cook County Dept. of Corrections. See exhibit (E)

6/04 $163.43 arrived at Metropolitan Correctional Center, 71 W. Van Buren St., Chicago and was sent from Cook County Dept. of Corrections, 2600 S. California Ave. Chicago Div 5. Trust Department.

7/11/04 Property is mailed to Metropolitan Correctional Center, 71 W. Van Buren, Chicago by Officer Coates #3684 and with it a letter stating that the sum total of the jewelry was enclosed, and that the money was to follow in written notation, and signed by Officer Coates #3684. This letter, not given to me, nor the property of the letter of Officer Coates #3684, spoke of, giving instructions so eloquently; in the letter it read, enclosed please find the following; 1 watch, 1 wallet, 4 rings, 2 earrings, 4 necklaces, 3 charms, and further stated any request for currency must be submitted to our trust office located at this same address, then noted that the money was to follow, and signed it.

7/04 Mr. Anthony Canty through seeing that the money had arrived from Cook County Dept. of Corrections then inquired as to the aspects of the additional property meaning the jewelry listed in exhibit (A). Only inquiring at this point because Mr. Anthony Canty had not received the property at this time, nor any further communication from Officer Coates #3684, concerning the property, and at this time had not received the property nor had knowledge of its arrival.

At this time Anthony Canty has made the full intake staff aware of the situation of the expensive jewelry to be expected to arrive, these being senior Officer Salazar, Officer Thomas, and Counselor Wallace was the intake at the time of the initial transgression, not saying they were at all responsible the loss of property.

8/2/04 Property arrives at Metropolitan Correctional Center, Chicago was signed for by one of the intake personnel, and was it all becomes a question mark of the whereabouts of the package of which the property came in, the contents of the package has become a mystery, the person who signed for the property signature has yet to be recognized by the other staff members, to quote there's nothing we can do because we don't know who signed for it, and when Anthony Canty showed him the receipt of the U.S.P.S. signed by the Officer of the day; See attached exhibit, signed M. REMEGI Dated 8/2/04 and address to Mr. Anthony Canty; See exhibit (A), the statement of the nothing we can do was made by Mr. Senior Officer Salazar.

Mr. Officer Bryant Conrad told me that he would get to the bottom of the whole thing and would be able to tell me soon who had forged another name on green card receipt of the U.S.P.S..

Mr. Anthony Canty continued to try to retrieve the property of which had been sent to the Metropolitan Correctional Center, and had not been delivered to Mr. Anthony Canty as Cook County Dept. had intended it to.

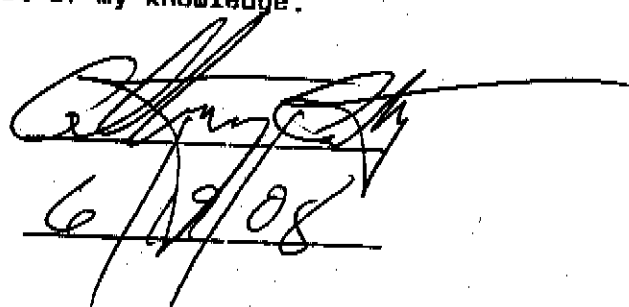

8/20/05 One Year and the property [NOT] delivered to Mr. Anthony Canty, and it seems that Mr. Senior Officer Salazar had become a reality in his words of this developing into civil litigation because his lack of trying to retrieve the property of Mr. Anthony Canty and through contacting Officer Coates some type of clarity was found. Officer Coates #3684 showed integrity in ever function and capacity of her position at property dept. she worked at, by not allowing some very expensive jewelry and some insignificant amount of money to blight the well earned meritorious record that she has established. Officer Coates forwarded a written letter of the date the property was mailed and that it was mailed certified mail, that it is verifiable by their record of the signed RECEIVED P.S.: UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE, THIS LETTER WAS DELIVERED 8/20/05;

See Exhibit (B).

I have every reason to believe that officer Coates #3684 had the best intentions to make sure the property was received by me at the Metropolitan Correctional Center, although this intention was thwarted by some other agenda that brought me to this point.

Mr. Officer Bryant Conrad also stated that he knew that someone had signed and possibly removed the property from the Metropolitan Correctional Center and that Mr. Salazar had told to back off because the situation was developing into some type of civil litigation.

I swear under penalty of perjury that all statements and evidence presented in this tort claim is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature, likely of the plaintiff, is written over a horizontal line. Below the signature, the date "6/19/08" is handwritten, also over a horizontal line.
